CORPORATION LAWS. In his message Gov. Wilson said

"The Corporation laws of the State storiously stand in need of alteration. natoriously stand, in need of alteration. They are manifestly inconsistent with the policy of the Federal Government and with the interests of the people in the all-impress matter of monopoly.

The laws of New Jersey as they stand, so far from checking monopoly, actually encourage it. They explicitly parmit every corporation formed in New Jersey, for example, to purchase, hold, assign and dispute of as it pleases the securities of any and all other corporations of this or any other State, and to exercise at pleasure the full rights of ownership in them, including the right to vote as stockholders.

This is nothing less than an explicit licenses of heiding companies. This is the very method of forming wart combinations and creating monopoly, against which the whole country has set its face, and I am ourse that the people of New Yersey do not discess from
